

September 2011 Coordinator Report
Michelle Sharp

Women's Wellness Connection

- 9/01: September is Ovarian Cancer Awareness month, continued researching information to write an article for WWC.
- 9/07 & 08: Went with Jackie to the Women's Wellness Conference in Keystone, learned a lot of information and made some great networking contacts.
- 9/12: Touched base with Ben Blecha at KSTC 104.7 about the Pink Out volleyball games in October.
- 9/14: Participated in the WWC Navigator conference call with Jackie, Silvia from RCRC, and Dorain, talked about the conference and what things we are doing to promote WWC.
- 9/21: Spoke with Emily for WCC about the conference call she missed the week before and told her what we talked about. Told her we would probably talk the same things on the call on 9/22.
- 9/22: Updated with Ben Blecha from KSTC 104.7 about the Pink Outs scheduled in October. Participated in a WWC conference call with Teresa Waite, Cindy Killip, and Silvia Castillo about the Pink Outs that are scheduled and who was going to participate
- 9/23: Wrote an article about Ovarian Cancer for the newspapers, to inform women about getting their screenings, cold called women to inform them about WWC and see if they would qualify for the program, scheduled a woman in. Updated the Pink Out games on the WWC Facebook page. Sent out the press release to the other navigators to see what they thought. Cold called women that have participated in GAP or were clients of HFAP to let them know about the program and see if they were interested in participating in the program.
- 9/27: Pulled together WWC info and updated board to take to the Food Bank of the Rockies at Logan County Fairgrounds
- 9/28: Spent the morning at the Food Bank of the Rockies at the Logan County Fairgrounds, handed out 100 flyers to women that came to the food bank
- 9/30: Talked with Laura Montoya from Salud to get clarification on how Salud is handling their WWC program, called women back to explain what they needed for their appointment prior to arriving for their appointment.

Healthier Living

- 9/06: Glenda and I met with Anne Warhover from the Colorado Health Foundation to talk about the Healthier Living grant and how classes were going and what needs we may have.
- 9/15: Started a new set of classes with Glenda in Sterling; they will be held every Thursday until 10/20.
- 9/29: Facilitated week 3 with Glenda

Other

- 9/09 to 9/14: worked on and completed Rural Solutions Colorado Gives/Giving First Profile. Rural Solutions will be able to participate in the Colorado Gives day on December 6. We will also have a profile that we will be able to accept credit card donations through that we will not have to pay a service fee on until we reach $50,000 in donations. This is also a great profile to have for current and future funders to look at and see a lot of information about Rural Solutions, a one stop shop.
- 9/13: Attended the Design Team meeting in Sterling, we are planning the 7th Annual Senior Law Day which will be held on October 27 in Sterling at the Heritage Center.
- 9/26: Updated the flyer for the GAP class for Mickie Sjoberg to take with her to the Bridges Conference in Indiana.
- 9/29: Attended the Employment Discrimination training held by the Workforce center at NJC
- 9/30: Attended the Legislative Breakfast in Akron.
